PROJECT PRESENTATION

WisH Where is Home

CONTEXT

The real estate sector is in constant evolution, propelled by the growing demand of efficient and personalized solutions for the search of properties.

The choice of a property goes beyond its physical characteristics; the context of the area where the property is located plays a crucial role in the purchasing decision.

PROBLEM

Client’s hardships in selecting a property in unknown areas

Limitations of traditional real estate platforms

GOALS

#1
Develop an innovative real estate platform
#2
Offer an in-depth and personalized view of interest areas
#3
Allow the customer to explore the areas based on individual preferences
#4
Provide an useful tool for real estate agents

EXPECTED RESULTS

Launching a functioning platform that allows for an innovative real estate searching experience.

Positive response from real estate agents and clients, based on the platform's utility and efficacy.

Possibly have an impact in the national market, with the potential to become a standard solution in the selection of a property.

RELATED WORK

In the Real Estate environment there no existing websites that share characteristics and a concept vision equal to the one proposed.
